Comments from Germany on the Endorsement by Mail of the SPCR for Saint Vincent and the Grenadines

Dear Andrea,

thank you very much for the response form the PPCR Team for St. Vincent and the Grenadines.

We are grateful that our concerns will be considered during project preparation and implementation. In our opinion, it will be of major importance that activities are clearly linked to expected outcomes so that change over time can be tracked, as outlined in the response.

We fully appreciate that truly participatory processes are necessarily based on a different set of rules and therefore provide sometimes unusual and possibly challenging solutions, which also not only carry the opportunity for more ownership but also for innovative solutions.

We therefore fully support the SPCR from St. Vincent and the Grenadines and congratulate the Government and the whole team to their excellent document.

Kind regards
Annette
